

Concord Supports Susan Bonilla

“Susan Bonilla is the only one Concord families and small business owners can trust to fight for us in the State Senate.”

— Concord Mayor Tim Grayson

Susan Bonilla for State Senate

A Proven Record of Delivering for Concord

Susan Bonilla is a former Concord High teacher, Mayor, and mother of four who raised her children here in Concord. She shares our priorities and has built a proven record of delivering results for us.

- Led efforts to ensure that redevelopment of the Naval Weapons Station benefits existing residents and small business – creating new jobs, parks, and affordable middle-class housing
- Protected vital public safety services to keep our neighborhoods safe
- Delivered new funding for technology upgrades in our local schools
- Created tax incentives to help local small business owners create new jobs and grow

In the State Senate, Susan Bonilla will be a strong voice and advocate for Concord, just like she's done her whole life.
